

ISPLC 2011, Udine

Panel: Smart Grids

Ralf Lehnert, TU Dresden, Germany

Panelists

Gerd Bumiller, iAd, Germany

Bahram Honary, U Lancaster, Great Britain

Masaaki Katayama, U Nagoya, Japan

Bill Lichtensteiger, Landis + Gyr, Switzerland

Giuseppe Michele Salaris, Enel, Italy

Kiwi Smit, Alliander, The Netherlands

Topics

- What are the main applications for or in a power grid to become smart?
- What are the communications requirements for AMR?
- What are the communications requirements for grid control and grid stability?
- Which security and privacy measures are to be taken?
- From the above: which parameter and parameter values can be deducted for the communications network?
- Do we need broadband PLC in the network? Where?
- Do we need IPv6?